Press Release:

Jumpin Salty announces their first EP, "Boom, Bust and the New Deal" is now available for download at www.jumpinsalty.com CD's are also available at gigs. The band recorded the album last fall at the Magic Shop in New York City. Produced by Morgan Kraft and engineered by Ted Young, it includes original songs by members of the band as well as a recording of the blues standard "I'd Rather Go Blind", one of two tracks that feature Dave Gross on guitar.

The members of Jumpin Salty have been making music together since Madison, Morgan, Wesley and Lex all attended the North Carolina School of the Arts. They began working with vocalist and songwriter Liz Edwards in 2009, meeting at a mutual gig in New York. Along with a full schedule of regular shows, they are returning to the studio this fall to start work on their first full length CD.
